

How to Have a Terrific Day

Everyday!

What does it mean to have an Terrific Day? With Ron Waterfield, it means seeing the glass as half full not half empty. It means enjoying the small things and appreciating what life gives you.

Why do some people get all the breaks, get the great grades, and the right friends? Its all about the vibes we put out there.

With Ron's topic, "How to Have a Terrific Day Everyday"...Ron will share with the students and teachers how to see the positive things in life and how to get things that are not working to be working again in their lives.

Ron has delivered numerous presentations on how a student can achieve great goals, create a positive mental attitude in every aspect of their life and to live a life that is Amazing!

What's Included:

- Live recording of the event.
- 2 "The Next Level" training manuals
- Handouts for the students
- Use of Presentation Plus remote handhelds

*More than an entertainer, more than a speaker!
Ron Waterfield delivers premium entertainment with a message of empowerment. This message stays with the students long after the speaking engagement.*

You and your students will learn how to:

- Develop a positive mental attitude today and everyday.
- Eliminate the impact of self doubt and negative thought pattern.
- Use empowering words and get rid of "Don't", "Not" and "No".
- Set and accomplish any goal.
- Discover how to bring the best self to your friends and your community.
